Conferences in Computer Science/STEM

AfroTech Conference
November
Multi-day experience including the virtual AfroTech World and a series of in-person events in various locations. The digital experience includes multiple programming stages, an expo hall with 100+ corporate sponsors and recruiters, networking events, and more.

AHEAD (Association on Higher Education and Disability)
July
Includes some 1,500 presenters and participants from diverse fields, including education, technology, law, scholarship, and government.

AISES National Conference
October
Three-day event focusing on educational, professional, and workforce development for Indigenous peoples of North America and the Pacific Islands in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) studies and careers.

Black is Tech
August/September
Creates a platform for Black tech professionals, students, entrepreneurs, and enthusiasts to connect, learn, and gain the best resources for professional and business development.

Code for America Summit
May
Brings together changemakers from across the country to convene, collaborate, and learn as they break through challenges by removing barriers and finding real solutions.

CSforAll
October
Focuses on closing education equity gaps.

Emerging Researchers National (ERN) in STEM
March
Aimed at college and university undergraduate and graduate students who participate in programs funded by the NSF HRD Unit, including underrepresented minorities and persons with disabilities; objectives are to help undergraduate and graduate students enhance their science communication skills and prepare for science careers in a global workforce.

The Global Women in STEM Leadership Summit
September
A movement to build capacity, nurture talent, create community, and empower women and girls in scientific and technological fields.

Grace Hopper
September/ October
AnitaB.org flagship event Grace Hopper Celebration brings the research and career interests of women in computing to the forefront.

Great Minds in STEM (GMiS)
November
Venue where college students and professionals from all underserved communities can connect with companies, government agencies, and higher education institutions looking to recruit diverse technical talent.

Inclusion in Science Learning A New Direction (ISLAND) Conference on Disability and STEM
August/September
Addresses how persons with disabilities can be more fully integrated.

Latinas in Tech Summit
May
Brings together influential Latinas working in technology to network for landing tech jobs and growing tech careers.

Lesbians Who Tech Summit
October and June
To encourage more women, POC, and queer and trans people in technology to connect our community to other organizations and companies that are doing incredible work.

National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE) National Convention
March
Supports and promotes the aspirations of collegiate and pre-collegiate students and technical professionals in engineering and technology.

NDiSTEM (SACNAS)
October
SACNAS' premier conference, the largest multidisciplinary and multicultural STEM diversity conference in the country, serves to equip, empower, and energize participants for their academic and professional paths in STEM.

oSTEM
November
A space for LGBTQ+ students and professionals in STEM fields to share their experiences and learn from one another.

Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE) National Convention
November
The country's largest annual gathering of Hispanic STEM students and professionals.

Society of Women Engineers (sWE) Conference
October/November
World's largest conference for women engineers and technologists.

Tapia Conference
September
To acknowledge, promote, and celebrate diversity in computing.

Tech Inclusion
September
To discuss a variety of different topics all related to our ever-changing workplace.

Women In CyberSecurity Conference (WiCYS)
April
To recruit, retain, and advance women in cybersecurity, all while creating a community of engagement, encouragement, and support at a technical conference for women and allies.

Women in Tech Boston
October
Central meeting place for women in tech.